Message from the President

Well the time has come again to celebrate fall and pleasant riding weather with Redshank Riders annual Turkey Treasure Hunt and Dinner, to be held Friday night Nov 6 and Sat. Nov 7, 2009. This year is our 11th annual and hopefully the best one yet. Teri Baron has gone to great lengths to insure a good time will be had by all. Come out on Fri. night for some socializing with musical entertainment provided. We'll have a campfire and it should be a good chance to see some old friends or make some new ones.

The Raffle this year is shaping up to be the best ever. Items range from McClintock Leather Goods, $100.00 Gift Certificates and Quality Outdoor Gear from REI, Great wines from local wineries and Handmade Horse gear. Many more Items to numerous to mention will be available. Please come out and support your club. Remember this is our main Membership drive and Fundraising activity for the year. Bring a friend, or better yet 2 to join and help us keep the trails open for Pack and Saddle Stock. This is your chance to make a difference by contributing The Funds needed to continue our Focus on Education of all trail users. By supporting our goals you tell the agencies who administer the Forest Service, BLM, National Monuments, State and Local Parks, that we are serious about maintaining our right to Access our Public Lands on Horseback. This year's focus will be on raising money for the new 501c3 Education Fund. By contributing to this Fund you get a tax write-off for your charitable contribution. We get to use the money for Educational purposes. This includes a wide range of options. Some possibilities include funding LNT Seminars, Trail Signage, Packing Clinics and whatever you can think of that might come under the heading of Education.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Your President,

Pete Spencer

Turkey Treasure Hunt Gobbles Around Again

So... Wha' do ya think?

For starters, we have overnight camping so you don't have to get up so darn early to feed and get here. Just be sure and let me know you are coming. Then, when you get here, we are planning a RELAXING evening, sitting by a campfire and listening to live entertainment. And no, the live entertainment is NOT my granddaughter beating on her drums. It is an actual professional group, Skeleton Crew. How appropriate is that, so close to Halloween. Ron and Lenny perform many gigs around the area and can play just about anything you want. Ron is also a local general Contractor and has built many fine houses in the area, including mine. He and Lenny are donating their services. All those who will be riding or joining us for dinner the next day can come out and enjoy the festivities. Friday camping is a BYOBDB...bring your own booze, dinner & breakfast, we will have bbq's to cook with.

OH, you don't know what in the heck I am talking about? Well, get your head out of the sand and listen up. It is that time of the year when all the turkeys look for hidin' places because they are just too tasty and we can't wait until Thanksgiving to eat them. So Redshank Riders, a unit of Backcountry Horsemen, get together, our 11th year, for an early Thanksgiving dinner as an excuse to have a trail ride, as if we needed an excuse for a trail ride..... ha ha. This event is called The Turkey Treasure Hunt, I will explain the "treasure" part later. In addition to an awesome trail ride on a private ranch, you will not want to miss the dinner, it will be a full on Thanksgiving dinner, turkey, stuffin, mashed potatoes, green bean casserole all just like grandma used to make... oh yeah, grandma IS making it along with her daughter, the chef! We would like our existing members to bring a friend or two (and aw heck, we will take people we don't even know) to join Backcountry to support its efforts both locally, state and nationally.

AND, the Raffle! Just too good to be true. Pauline always does a fantastic job going out in the community and acquiring beautiful and useful items donated by our local merchants. The best part is you can put the tickets you buy in for only the items you really want and you don't have to be present to win. For a few measly bucks, you can have the chance to own some of our raffle items, pictures somewhere in this newsletter, what a deal. We have three raffle categories: 1. Garry McClintock, saddle bags, horn bag and 5/8 mecate, tickets are $5 ea. 2. General raffle items, see listing in this newsletter, tickets are $1 ea. 3. Outdoor recreation items acquired from REI, funds to go towards the Backcountry Education Fund, tickets are $1 ea. Raffle funds go towards supporting our units efforts for local trail maintenance, equipment purchase and keeping our heads in the fight for access to OUR public lands. We have quite a few new members because of the Treasure Hunt and we will keep things going with some fresh energy and ideas.

OK, you wanted an explanation of "treasure", well here goes. This is really a multi-faceted explanation because for purposes of this event, it has several definitions. The first most basic is that the trail ride involves stopping every now and then and searching for small plastic items with your groups number on it, hence your "treasure". The group that gets back with all their treasures and the fastest time, wins. Now hold your horses, before you imagine galloping through the redshank at break neck speed, you can ONLY walk and trot. How do we monitor this? We know..... The next explanation for "treasure" is the suckie one, you end up at the end of the day knowing that you have had a wonderful time riding with your friends, enjoying the comraderie, eating a fantastic meal and feeling really satisfied that you are lucky enough to be enjoying such a great experience, the ability to relax and enjoy and forget about your woes for a while is really a treasure.

Well I have droned on enough, just come on out, you won't regret it. If you are going to register the day of the event, just try to let us know ahead of time that you will be coming so we don't run short on food.

2009 Turkey Treasure Hunt Raffle Items:

The first raffle we are having is for Garry McClintock handmade items. Garry is a local saddle maker in Descanso and has wonderful products. Pictures of the some of the items we will have in the raffle are on the next page. Raffle tickets for these items are $5 per ticket. You need not be present to win.

28. Many more items, you will just have to come and see!

The third raffle we are having is to support the new 501c3 Backcountry Horsemen Education Fund. This fund allows donations to be tax deductible for the contributor and still allows the local units to receive funds to do their work on a local level. Raffle items for this category were all obtained and donated from REI. The items are all outdoor equipment of various types too numerous to list, but you will be sorry if you don't get in on this. Tickets are $1 each and you need not be present to win.

If you are unable to attend and would like to purchase tickets contact Teri Baron at teri@seanconnery.com, or call 408 206-6051, or write to her at

State Championship Event - Holcomb Valley, Big Bear Lake
September, 26 & 27, 2009
52 Competitors

Redshank Riders sponsored Buckle for CSHA Trail Trial State Championship in September.

Riding a horse on a trail has always been one big obstacle course. The California State Horsemen's Association has taken this fact one step further and now has a fully recognized sanctioned program where riders are judged on their skills and abilities to guide their horses through a natural obstacle course. This type of course riding is known as "Trail Trials". Sanctioned CSHA Trail Trials are produced throughout the year all over California by equestrian clubs, individuals and the CSHA Regional area programs.

OFFICIALS RELEASE MORE DETAILS ON TEXAS EQUINE PIROPLASMOSIS

by: Erin Ryder, TheHorse.com News Editor October 21 2009, Article # 15133

A ranch in Kleberg County, Texas, is under quarantine after a 7-year-old Quarter Horse mare became ill and tested positive for equine piroplasmosis earlier this month. An additional 31 horses on the ranch have also tested positive. An Oct. 20 report issued to the World Organization for Animal Health by John Clifford, DVM, deputy administrator of the USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, gives new details on the situation.

Equine piroplasmosis is an infectious disease caused by either of two protozoal parasites that attack the red blood cells. Affected animals can exhibit fever, anemia, weight loss, jaundice, and, in some cases, clinical signs lead to death. The case fatality rate can be up to 20% in naive horses (those that have never been exposed), and some infected equine animals might exhibit few or no signs of disease.

What if my horse keeps yawning, what could it mean?

If your horse seems to be yawning inappropriately it can often be a sign of abdominal pain. Take quick stock of the situation and make sure there are no other signs of colic.

There's Still Time to Enter the 2010 BCHC KowKids Kalendar!

Please submit digital photos of your little kids, grandkids doing their equine thing to: muledaze@yahoo.com by November 1st. We will begin selling them by December 1st in time for holiday gifts!
